

Maritime Arbitration in Denmark

A seminar presented by Danish Shipowners' Association in association with the Danish Institute of Arbitration.

12 May 2009, at 14:30-17:00 at the premises of Danish Shipowners' Association, Amaliegade 33, DK-1256 Copenhagen K.

Everybody who is involved in concluding contracts in the field of maritime law should attend. Also attorneys, arbitrators, in-house counsel, academics and others with interest in the current developments in the field of maritime arbitration should attend.

Registration no later than 6 May 2009 on office@voldgiftsinstituttet.dk is required. Registration is free of charge.

PROGRAMME

14:30-14:40: Welcome and Introduction

Attorney Jesper Lett, Chairman of the Danish Institute of Arbitration

14:40-15:00: Settling disputes with the Danish Institute of Arbitration

Steffen Pihlblad, Managing Director of the Danish Institute of Arbitration

15:00-15:45: Maritime Arbitration in Denmark and abroad

Attorney Henrik Thal Jantzen, Kromann Reumert

Attorney Jes Anker Mikkelsen, Bech-Bruun

Attorney Peter Appel, Gorrissen Federspiel Kierkegaard

- Experiences with arbitration in London and Copenhagen
- How do you get success in negotiations of arbitration clauses?
- What is a dispute resolution policy and why your business must have a dispute resolution policy
- How do you appoint the best arbitrator?
- Qualified arbitrators and party representatives in Denmark
- Future perspectives with maritime arbitration in Denmark
- Good reasons for choosing arbitration in Denmark in a maritime dispute

15:45-16:00: Coffee break

16:00-16:30: Maritime Arbitration in Denmark and abroad, continued

16:30-16:45: The interest of Insurance companies in alternative dispute resolution in maritime cases

Senior Vice President Anders Ulrik, SKULD, Copenhagen

16:45-17:00: Concluding remarks and questions

Attorney Jesper Lett, Chairman of the Danish Institute of Arbitration

Certificate of attendance will be issued on request by the organizers at the end of the seminar.